

ENTER THE 2016 EUROPEAN SME WEEK YOUTH ESSAY COMPETITION AND WIN BIG!

YOUTH ESSAY
COMPETITION

Tell us what the EU can do to encourage more young entrepreneurs and you could be on your way to Bratislava!

Do you have a bright idea about what the EU could do to help more young people become entrepreneurs? Would you like to share your thoughts with policymakers and entrepreneurs on a European stage?

European SME Week, under the patronage of the European Commissioner for Single Market, Industry, Entrepreneurship and SMEs, has launched a youth essay contest aimed at 16-25 year olds across Europe.

Write an essay of no more than 2,500 words under the heading:

“What can the EU do to encourage more young people to become entrepreneurs?”

and you could win an all expenses paid trip* to the SME Assembly in Bratislava, Slovakia, in November, where you will present your prize-winning entry before an audience of over 600 delegates from the world of enterprise and entrepreneurship.

Submissions are due by 2 September, 2016.
